

KRUGER BUSY

Acknowledging the Honors Bestowed Upon Him by the French.

CROWD GAVE HIM AN OVATION

As He Drove Along the Street—Vice President Escudier Highly Eulogized the Aged Boer—Om Paul Replied in a fervent speech.

PARIS, Nov. 27.—Mr. Kruger began a busy day this morning by making an official call. Before 9 o'clock he departed from the Hotel Scribe, driving in a landau surrounded by Republican guards and bicycle policemen, to visit the premier, M. Waldeck-Rousseau. He was accompanied by Dr. Leyds, Dr. Van Hammel and Delegate Fischer. The party was met at the entrance to the premier's salon by M. Ulrich, director of the cabinet, who introduced the visitors to the prime minister. The interview took place in M. Waldeck-Rousseau's private study and lasted ten minutes. At half past 9 o'clock the premier, accompanied by M. Ulrich, returned the call.

Interview Was Private.
The officers of the municipal council of Paris and of the general council of the Seine were received at 10 a. m. by Mr. Kruger, in the Hotel Scribe. The interview was private and brief. Immediately after the visitors had departed Mr. Kruger drove to the Hotel de Ville. He received an ovation from a large crowd massed in the square in front of the edifice. Mr. Kruger was conducted to the debating hall, where he was given the arm-chair reserved for representatives of government. The municipal councillors and the people in the public galleries loudly cheered the distinguished visitor.

Vice President Escudier delivered an eloquent address, saying Paris had given Mr. Kruger a welcome worthy of his noble character and the grandeur of his cause. He also said:

Heart of France.
"You have heard the heart of Paris beat. It is the heart of France. Let the peoples speak and speak loudly and arbitration will impose itself as necessary satisfaction to justice and civilization."

The president of the general council spoke in a similar strain.

Mr. Kruger replied in energetic tones thanking the speakers for the sentiments expressed. He said he was deeply grateful for the welcome which was a continuation of and a crowning of that France had already given him. Since he landed, the former president added, he had been on a rising wave of acclamation. He was very thankful for what had been done and for what they wished to do for him and his people, who were still struggling and were not yet defeated. Their resistance continues and will still continue. They will ever struggle for independence, liberty and justice.

Continuing. Mr. Kruger said:
Would Demand Arbitration.
"O, why can they not hear your exclamations. It would redouble their courage."

Mr. Kruger also said he hoped they would yet know them one day in the future, when they had recovered their independence. He regretted arbitration had been refused and he would never cease to demand it.

The Boer leader was then shown through the superbly decorated halls of the Hotel de Ville. Once he appeared at a window and was enthusiastically cheered. As he drove back to his hotel he was accorded a warm greeting on the road.

The president of the municipal council, to-morrow will propose in the council a vote in favor of arbitrating the Transvaal disputes.

Henri Rochefort, accompanied by a deputation including Deputies Millevoye and Paulin-Nery, Senator Provost Delaunay and Mm. Coppe and Lemaître to-day presented Mr. Kruger with a sword of honor destined for General Cronje, now a prisoner on the island of St. Helena.

Kruger Will Seek a Home Here.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Samuel Pearson, formerly commissary general of the Transvaal army, who has just arrived in this country, with a number of other Boer refugees, is responsible for the statement that President Kruger will probably soon seek refuge and a permanent home here.

"President Kruger will leave Paris very soon, I believe," said General Pearson, "and come to America, where, with his wife, he will make a home until such time as other arrangements have triumphed and he can return to the South African republic to take up again his office as chief executive of the Boers."

CATARRH OF THE PELVIC ORGANS.

The Reason Why So Many Women Are Sick.

Mrs. Eliza Wike, 129 Iron St., Akron, O.

Mrs. Eliza Wike says: "I would be in my grave now if it had not been for your God-sent remedy, Pe-ru-na. Everybody says I am looking so much better. No doctor could help me as Pe-ru-na did. I was a broken-down woman. It is now seven years past that I was cured."

Mrs. Sarah Gallitz, of Linton, Ia., also writes: "I was suffering with the change of life. I had spells of flowing every two or three weeks, which would leave me nearly dead. I had given up hope of being cured, when I heard of Dr. Hartman's remedies and began to use them. I am entirely cured, and give all the credit to Pe-ru-na."

But comparatively few women who are suffering with pelvic catarrh know that this is the case. Their trouble is called dyspepsia, heart trouble, female weakness, weak lungs, nervous debility; indeed, almost the whole category of medical terms has been applied to catarrh of some organ of the female anatomy. If these women could only realize that their trouble is probably catarrh of the organs peculiar to women of pelvic organs, and cure themselves with Pe-ru-na, how much unnecessary suffering would be saved.

Mrs. Karolina Suter, 2133 Vine street, Cincinnati, O., says: "Two years ago I fell on the ice. At first I did not think that I had hurt myself; but several months after I felt pains in the abdomen, and a little later my menses failed to appear. I wrote to you in regard to it, hearing that you cured female troubles, and followed your directions. I took Pe-ru-na and Man-a-lin. I now have the best of health."

Mrs. Marie Hanson, of Niebuhl, Wis., writes: "About two years ago I had disease of the kidneys and womb. I was in a weak, nervous condition and began to have dreadful palpitation of the heart. I was confined to the bed. I had given up all hope of ever being well again. I commenced taking Pe-ru-na. I found relief when I had taken the first bottle. Now I have taken seven bottles of Pe-ru-na. I thank you for your advice and I am glad I can say that I am well now."

Dr. Hartman has written a book especially for women. It treats of female catarrh in all its different phases and stages. It contains common sense talks on subjects which should interest every woman. A book will be sent free to any woman. Address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, O.

BENWOOD.
McMECHEN.

MOUNDSVILLE.
WELLSBURG.

The Flood Scare.

As might be expected, the looked-for high water is the sole topic of conversation among the inhabitants of Benwood, where the ground is on a much lower level than Wheeling, and the floods of past years have wreaked havoc on property. A thirty-five foot stage would fill almost every cellar in the town, through the medium of the sewers, and a rise of thirty-nine feet would cover all the more important thoroughfares in the city. The more encouraging news from Pittsburgh late yesterday afternoon tended to have a quieting effect on the fears of the residents of the industrial town and the average person felt no alarm over the situation. As it was, however, the water did considerable damage to the denizens of the boat-houses that were beached along the shore. Many of them were sunk and there was a scurrying to places of safety.

G. V. Hughes Dead.

G. V. Hughes, one of Moundsville's most highly respected citizens, died yesterday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock, at his home on Eleventh street. He has been suffering from an abscess in his back for several months, and an operation was performed upon him some time ago, but it wasn't successful. Mr. Hughes moved to Moundsville several years ago from Greene county, Pa. He leaves a wife and one child to mourn his loss. The funeral arrangements had not been made last evening.

Died Suddenly.

Gertrude, the thirteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Bauer, of Morton avenue, Moundsville, died Monday evening, after a brief illness. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment at Mount Rose cemetery.

All the mill machines have been removed from the old mill factory of the Wheeling Steel & Iron Company and Ohio river is rising rapidly and reached a stage of 15 feet 8 inches at 8 a. m. to-day. Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters' and to my great joy and surprise the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." None should fail to try them. Only 50 cts., guaranteed, at Logan Drug Co.'s drug store, 5

WILSON DEAD.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue Succumbs to Disease—Most Proficient Man in the Service.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 27.—Commissioner of Internal Revenue Wilson died this forenoon at his apartments at the Riggs, house, of Bright's disease, complicated with asthma. He had been dangerously ill for several days past. There were with him at the time of his death Mrs. Wilson, his daughter Mrs. Pardonner and several of his associates of the treasury department.

George Washington Wilson was fifty-seven years of age and a native of Ohio. He entered the Union army when eighteen years of age, as a private in the Fifty-fourth Ohio Volunteer Infantry, and served throughout the war, coming out a first lieutenant. In 1866 he took up the practice of law and in 1869 entered the internal revenue service. He served in various capacities, rising from an important position to another until he became head of the bureau. Commissioner Wilson was regarded as the most thoroughly informed man on internal revenue subjects who ever entered the government service, and was consulted on all measures affecting the revenues that have been before Congress for many years.

The funeral will be at Hamilton, O., on Thanksgiving day. The party, including Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Pardonner and Chief Deputy Williams, will leave here to-morrow, over the Chesapeake & Ohio road at 3 p. m., going via Cincinnati to Hamilton, where the interment will take place.

A GREAT RECORD.

Hard to Duplicate it in Wheeling. Scores of representative citizens of Wheeling are testifying on the following subject. Such a record of local endorsement is unequaled in modern times. This public statement made by a citizen is but one of the many that will follow. Read it:

Mrs. M. Deiters, of No. 25 South Huron street, says: "After an attack of la grippe, I had severe aching across the small of my back and through my right thigh, bearing down pain in the ankles, numbness and aching of the ankles; often worse when lying down; I could hardly turn over or get out of it. I saw so many favorable accounts of Doan's Kidney Pills that I got a box at the Logan Drug Co.'s, and began their use. I felt relieved after a few doses and continued their use with splendid results. My sister was visiting me at the time and being troubled, as I was, she took some on my recommendation, and they helped her right away."
